

George Fox University

Band & Orchestra Festival

March 10, 2023

Friday, either AM or PM timeslot

The George Fox University Band & Orchestra Festival will be a State Qualifying event. Certified judges will adjudicate the performance providing comments.

The cost of the festival is $250 per band or orchestra: placement and time preference in the Festival is dependent on when your application arrives. We will use the OBDA forms and the sliding scale depending on school size, though if you would prefer to perform for comments only, that is also an option. There is a 30-minute time limit similar to the OSAA State Championships; however, schools that are performing less than 15 minutes of music will be given a shorter slot. Schools can choose between a sight-reading session or a clinic.
