Praise to the Lord,
the Almighty, the King of creation.
O my soul, praise him,
for he is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear,
now to his temple draw near;
join me in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord,
who doth prosper thy work and defend thee;
surely his goodness
and mercy here daily attend thee.
Ponder anew
what the Almighty can do,
who with his love doth befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord,
who doth nourish thy life and restore thee,
fitting thee well
for the tasks that are ever before thee.
Then to thy need
God as a mother doth speed,
spreading the wings of grace o'er thee.

Praise to the Lord!
O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath,
come now with praises before him!
Let the amen sound from his people again;
gladly forever adore him.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Maggie Plater-Gleghorn, Senior Business Operations Specialist, Boeing Commercial Airplanes Quality

Maggie graduated from George Fox in 2018 and began a career in business operations at the Boeing Company. Utilizing her strategic problem solving, disruptive mindset, and focus on relationship building, she has excelled at projects great and small, each requiring intense cross-organizational coordination and creative process design. In a short career, Maggie has built a reputation as a “builder and breaker,” holding diverse roles supporting key business-critical initiatives such as the 737 MAX Supply Chain Tiger Team, the global Supply Chain COVID-19 triage effort, 2024 Quality Stand Downs, and various chief of staff roles to senior executives. She took a brief hiatus from her Boeing career to try her hand at formal marketing at Opus Agency, before returning to Boeing to create the Business Operations Internship Program, building a talented pipeline of strategic and curious students to build the bus ops talent pool. She currently is a senior business operations specialist, responsible for leading the Quality Safety Management process and integrated risk management.

Maggie graduated from George Fox summa cum laude with a degree in marketing, minoring in entrepreneurship, was awarded the Outstanding Marketing Student honor, and was a part of the inaugural class of the George Fox Honors Program. Maggie married another George Fox alumnus, Joel Gleghorn, in 2022 and is an avid long-distance runner, hiker, and foodie. She loves taking part in these activities around the Seattle area where she currently lives.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia generally consist of cap, gown and hood worn on formal occasions at institutions of higher learning. It originated in the medieval period, when the vast majority of scholars were of the clergy. The gown evolved from what most likely was the clergy's robe. The gown was originally black, but color was introduced as institutions left ecclesiastical control. The bachelor's gown is worn closed and is distinguished by its pointed sleeves. A master's gown is designed to be worn closed with long, crescent-shaped sleeves. The doctor's garb may be worn open or closed with velvet panels down the front and three bars on the round, bell-shaped sleeves.

The most distinguishing feature of the academic attire is the hood. The hood originated as the skull cap worn by the clergy to protect their heads from the elements. The hood served a three-fold purpose: head covering, shoulder cap, and bag for alms. The size and shape of the hood designates not only the college degree of the wearer, but also the university he or she attended. The master's hood is three and one-half feet in length, while the doctor's hood is rounded and measures four feet in length. Hoods are lined with the official colors of the institution conferring the degree. The official colors of George Fox University are old gold and navy blue. The binding around the hood is velvet, with the color indicative of the major field of study.

The list of graduate names was provided to the printer several days prior to commencement to allow production of this program. The status of some candidates may have changed since that time. Some candidates will not have completed all requirements for their degrees; others not listed will have completed requirements. The listing of a name in this program does not obligate George Fox University to award a degree. For official purposes, a final corrected list of graduates will be retained by the Office of the Registrar.
