Notes

If you are undecided about your major, take courses your first year that represent your interest areas!

- If you're interested in a Science major - consider taking BIOL 211/212- General Biology for your Natural Science GE Requirement.
- If you're interested in pursuing ministry, consider taking CHMN 130:Christian Discipling.
- If you're interested in business, consider taking BUSN 110:Introduction to Business.
- If you're interested in working with people, consider taking PSYC 150:General Psychology, SOCI 150:Principles of Sociology, or SWRK 180:Introduction to Social Welfare.
- If you're interested in participating in a music performance group or on an athletic team, you can course to your semester schedule once you are officially accepted to the team or group.
- If you are interested in taking a foreign language course, you will need to take a placement test online before being enrolled in the appropriate course.
